

X. DISPLAYS

- A. The Director may grant the privilege of placing exhibits and displays in the library, subject to the following conditions:
1. No poster, display, exhibit, pamphlet, brochure, leaflet or booklet shall be exhibited, displayed or placed in the library for distribution without permission of the Director (or designee).
  2. No organization or individual shall be permitted to display or exhibit any materials which advocate the election or defeat of a candidate for public office, or which advocate an affirmative or negative vote for or against any proposition or initiative, whether political or otherwise. Official election information will be made available in the library.
  3. No organization or individual shall be permitted to place in the library any receptacle which solicits donations, nor shall any poster or display be permitted which advocates or solicits consideration of any product or item sold by any commercial or charitable enterprise.
  4. Available space may be used by any group whose purpose for the display promotes the welfare or educational enlightenment of the community. Such displays shall be on a "first-come, first-served" basis, subject to the limitations of space as determined by the Director. Any organization requesting the use of this space must sign the "display contract" (see Appendix G).
  5. The library assumes no responsibility for the preservation, protection, or possible damage or theft of any item displayed or exhibited. All items placed in the library are done so at the owner's risk.
  6. Items are displayed for one month, unless otherwise agreed upon by the library and the display owner. In the event that the owner of the display does not reclaim it by 14 days after the agreed ending date of the exhibit, the library assumes ownership with the right to sell or dispose of the property.
  7. Display areas for the public include two sides of the bulletin board of the triangular display module.
